The Pharisee and Publican both prayed.

But the Pharisee acted boastful. The Publican was humble. God wants us to be humble like the man who is kneeling.

©2007, Hanna Publications. May be reproduced for home or classroom use only.

Humility (True or False)

Read the statements and have the students stand for true and sit for false answers.

- A humble person always wants to be first.
- A humble person lets others go first.
- A humble person thinks that he is the most important.
- A humble person knows that he is not the most important one.
- A humble person shouts during worship and makes a scene.
- A humble person worships God quietly.
- A humble person shows off in a crowd.
- A humble person is kind and helpful.
- A humble person likes to serve others.
- A humble person likes others to serve him.
- A humble person is nice to spend time with.
- A humble person is hard to spend time with.

©2007, Hanna Publications. May be reproduced for home or classroom use only.

4. Pharisee and Publican

Humble people do not brag about the things they do.
Humble People are not laying up treasure on earth.
Which way is best? Color the best way.

©2018, Hanna Publications. May be reproduced for home or classroom use only.

Circle the two pictures that show how to act when we pray. Cross off the others.

laughing

Grouchy and mean

jumping

Yelling out

showing off

Making a scene

dancing

©2007, Hanna Publications. May be reproduced for home or classroom use only.